Introducing Huntley School's International Student Coordinators

International Manager
Pam Gay

International Student Coordinator
Trisha Reddish

Huntley has a dedicated team of two staff for international students. The Headmaster, Mr Brad Gay oversees the programme and is involved in the marketing and overall strategic direction.

Pam Gay is the International Manager. She manages the programme and does most of the marketing and networking. She also gives administrative support. Pam has taught overseas in schools with her husband Mr Brad Gay. Pam and Brad have two sons.

Trisha Reddish has the role of International Student Coordinator, the accommodation coordinator as well as ESOL teacher. She is a trained teacher and experienced in teaching overseas. Trisha's husband teaches at the school and they have three sons.

We are very lucky to have a dedicated and trained team for internationals who have the academic and pastoral needs of the boys as their priority.

Come and join our international family.
